COMMUNITY CORRECTIONS FEE REPORT

The Community Corrections Fee Report was reviewed by Bruce Ayers of the Crime Commission. It was noted that based on the first 6 months of the current fiscal year, the yearly projections for each of the funds are as follows:

Uniform Data Analysis Fund	$ 440,000
Probation Fees Fund	2,500,000
Parole Fees Fund	130,000
Total Yearly Revenue Projection	$3,070,000

TARGET POPULATION REPORT

The standard Target Population Report was presented by Mike Behm of the Crime Commission in Mike Overton's absence. It was noted that Overton will have a specific definition of "Felony Drug Offender" or "FDO" at the next meeting of the Council.

TIMELINE

The 2006 Timeline was reviewed and approved as presented.

CONFIRM COUNCIL MEMBERS TITLES ON STATIONARY

Linda Krutz, Council Executive Director, requested members' preferred titles for Council stationary.

COUNCIL SUPPORT PROCESS FOR GRANT PROPOSALS

Linda Krutz, Council Executive Director, explained the process the Grant Support Review Committee in formulating the process for a letter of support request. The procedures were reviewed. A suggestion was made that within the information the requestor must provide be the way outcomes will be tracked.

FEES UPDATE - SPECIALIZED SUBSTANCE ABUSE SUPERVISION (SSAS) TRAINING

Jim McKenzie, Parole Administrator, explained how Parole will partner with Probation beginning in January for the intensive SSAS training. It is a matter of record that the Council approved and recommended Parole partner with Probation on SSAS. It was noted for the record that the training is how Parole is beginning this partnership.

A draft of the memorandum of understanding between Probation and Parole regarding SSAS will be presented at the next meeting.

SPECIALIZED SUBSTANCE ABUSE SUPERVISION PROBATION Q & A

Ellen Brokofsky, Probation Administrator; Deb Minardi, Community Corrections Coordinator; and Steve Rowoldt, Chief Probation Officer for Lancaster County fielded questions about SSAS by the Council. Further details were given about the program and how it would interface with Parole and the voucher program for treatment.

The Council recessed at 10:30 a.m. and reconvened at 10:45 a.m.

SPECIALIZED COURT START-UPS

Scott Carlson, Statewide Coordinator for Problem-Solving Courts, introduced the Honorable James E. Doyle, District Judge in the 11th judicial district based out of Lexington. Judge Doyle gave a PowerPoint presentation about the drug court that is being formed in Dawson County, the need for a drug court in his county, and the challenges thereto. He answered questions about his presentation.

Judge Doyle made two requests of the Council. First, to support the request for appropriations during this legislative session for start-up funding for drug courts, and second, to support the request for appropriations during this legislative session to fund all problem-solving courts.

METHAMPHETAMINE TREATMENT STUDY Q & A

T. Hank Robinson, PhD., University of Nebraska—Omaha (UNO), Dr. Gwen Weber, UNO, answered questions relating to the Methamphetamine Treatment Study Initial Report. It was emphasized that the report is a comprehensive system of recommendations regarding methamphetamine treatment in the state—the recommendations can be prioritized in terms of what actionable issues to address first, but UNO advised that “picking and choosing” only certain recommendations would not help the methamphetamine problem on the whole.

The Council recessed for lunch at 12:15 p.m. and reconvened at 12:45 p.m.

DEPARTMENT OF CORRECTIONAL SERVICES STRATEGIC PLAN BY CARTER, GLOBLE, & FEE

Bob Houston, Director of the Department of Correctional Services (DCS), and Doug Hanson, Chief Engineer for DCS, outlined DCS's new strategic plan process. DCS has contracted with Carter, Globle, & Lee to complete the strategic plan—the group that DCS has contracted with on past strategic plans before each of the newest DCS facilities were built—the Work Ethic Camp - McCook and the Tecumseh State Correctional Institution.

2006 PROPOSED COUNCIL LEGISLATION

The Council reviewed various options for 2006 legislation including reentry court and appropriations requests. The discussion will continue and the legislation will be finalized at the December 30 Council meeting.

PUBLIC TESTIMONY

John Krejci testified on his own behalf and handed out his testimony encouraging the Council to “keep the community in community corrections.”

Topher Hansen, Executive Director of Centerpointe, gave reaction to the Methamphetamine Treatment Study.

CONCLUDING REMARKS & ADJOURNMENT

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned.

The next scheduled meeting of the Council is Friday, December 30, 2005, 9:00 a.m., in Lincoln, Nebraska, at the Cornhusker Hotel.

Respectfully submitted,
